XIII. Expenses and Income – THIS MUST BE ACCURATE LEGIBLE AND COMPLETE

Please complete the estimated expenses and income for the school year. The Student Financial Aid Award Notice will list the estimated Tuition, Fees, Room and Board along with your Financial Aid awards. If you have not received your Student Financial Aid Award Notice, the expenses can be obtained from the college/university's website and/or from collegeboard.com. Expenses are defined as College Expenses, not ongoing living expenses. Do not leave the Expense or Income sections blank. If the Expense and Income section is not complete, your application will not be considered.

Expenses do not include: mortgage/rent payments, childcare, credit card payments or car loan payments. Room/Board is considered for a student who is living on campus or if student housing is not available on campus, student housing off campus is acceptable. Students who remain at home with parents or spouse should not include room and board in their expenses. Commuting expenses are acceptable.
