We are in a time of unprecedented change: a pandemic, political chaos, ever-changing rules, a vaccine, and a social and racial reckoning among other things. There is so much happening all around us. Join Talya Meyerowitz, Leadership, Communications and Culture consultant, to explore how you cope with change and how to understand the way in which those around you do.

Talya Meyerowitz is a dynamic coach, facilitator, and change agent who assists individuals and teams in stretching their limits and expanding their efficiency. Talya is known for her engaging personality and whose trademarks are authenticity, warmth, candor and her signature lively & entertaining approach. Drawing from years of study and practical application, Talya works with her clients to look at interpersonal communications and navigating the challenges of groupthink. As a result, teams and their leaders are more enabled in ways that maximize both time and productivity. With her clients, Talya creates actionable plans for respectful and high functioning workplaces and processes to implement necessary changes and ensure their longevity.

Talya Meyerowitz is President and Founder of A Respectful Workplace. She has spoken at several national and international leadership conferences and has gotten rave reviews. Talya has a passion for authentic, candid and effective communication. She is a certified DISC analyst and carries a MS Ed in Counseling from the State University of New York.